Print Activities

Classroom Activities

For each unit in Destination Reading there is a corresponding Classroom Activity developed to reinforce some of the reading/language arts skills and concepts taught throughout the program. Each activity focuses on a learning objective from a unit. As students complete a unit in Destination Reading, the corresponding print activity will provide additional practice opportunities toward mastery of important reading skills and concepts. Each classroom activity includes complete instructions to be used by classroom teachers, substitute teachers, parent volunteers, or instructional assistants.

Cause-and-Effect Puzzles

Cut out each puzzle piece. Tape or glue pairs of pieces together. Each pair should have a matching cause and effect.

Because the dog is cute, 	Because my friend hides, 	Because I am 8 years old today, 8	Because it is hot,
 I get a cake.	 I pet the dog.	 I put on my shorts.	 I do not see my friend.

Take-Home Activities

For each unit in Destination Reading there is a corresponding Take-Home Activity developed to reinforce some of the reading/language arts skills and concepts taught throughout the program. Each Take-Home Activity is a reproducible black line master that can be duplicated and sent home with students. At the top of the sheet is a letter to the student's family. There is room on the letter for the teacher to add the date and signature.
