

Learn the latest news about DCPS budget crisis.

Public invited to five Community Meetings to hear latest details about $170 million budget shortfall that is projected to impact public schools next year.

Parents, Duval County Public Schools employees and all citizens are invited to Community Meetings that will examine the school district's anticipated $170 million budget shortfall for the 2009-10 school year and its potential impact.

DCPS Superintendent Ed Pratt-Dannals will explain:

- How public education is funded
 - How funding has changed and dropped in recent years
 - The truth about lottery funding
 - What DCPS has done, what DCPS is doing to cut costs
 - Shortfall projections for 2009-10
 - What cuts the shortfall forces on DCPS
 - What parents, employees and taxpayers can do to help
-

▶ Wed., Feb. 11, 7 p.m.
Fletcher High
700 Seagate Ave.
Neptune Beach

▶ Tues., Feb. 24, 6 p.m.
Ribault High
3701 Winton Dr.
Jacksonville

▶ Thurs., March 5, 6 p.m.
Sandalwood High
2750 John Prom Blvd.
Jacksonville

▶ Mon., Feb. 23, 6 p.m.
Wolfson High
7000 Powers Ave.
Jacksonville

▶ Wed., Feb. 25, 6 p.m.
Ed White High
1700 Old Middleburg Rd.
Jacksonville

For latest info on budget crisis,
visit www.duvalschools.org