

Information for Businesses and the Community

Truant behavior impacts our businesses and community.

Businesses lose millions of dollars due to juvenile crime committed during school hours.

Students of today are your workforce of tomorrow.

Businesses lose millions of dollars in productivity each year due to employees addressing truancy issues.

What You Can Do:

Report truant kids to the police: call (904) 630-0500.

Educate your workforce about truancy and what to do about it.

Do not serve truant students.

Support your employees' involvement in school activities.

Support Jacksonville United Against Truancy with your sponsorship.
