

December 10, 2009

Dear Parents,

The department of Academic Services has created Winter Holiday Student Activity packets in Mathematics. Each grade-specific packet contains activities and math problems that were developed to support a mathematics connection between the classroom and home, using fun and enjoyable student and family activities.

We hope these activities with supporting materials will keep your child actively learning during this year's Winter Break.

Happy Holidays,

The Mathematics Department